Masked men take trailer, other items

Contact: Public Information Officer Tonyia M. McGirt, (803) 436-2737

SUMTER, SC (Nov. 20, 2017) – Police are asking for help from the public to help identify two men who were caught on video surveillance before taking a cargo trailer and other items belonging to a South Guignard Drive business.

The men cut through a fence to enter the Boykin Heating and Air property at 845 S. Guignard Drive after 4 a.m. Saturday and then cut a padlock to its gate before leaving with the trailer, which was loaded with equipment including a compressor and a generator.

A description of the vehicle that pulled the white, 6 feet by 10 feet trailer away was not available.

Anyone with information that could identify the robbers or if you saw anything unusual near the business the morning of the break-in, contact the Sumter Police Department at (803) 436-2700.

Also, if you are approached by someone wishing the sell a trailer, please notify law enforcement.

Information can be given anonymously by calling 1-888-CRIME-SC. A cash reward may be available for tips that lead to an arrest.

This trailer was stolen from a South Guignard Drive business over the weekend.
